The undersigned, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am a Military Police Officer at Fort Rucker, Alabama. On February 15th, 2007, I was dispatched to North Harris Street on Fort Rucker. Upon arrival I saw a woman, later identified as AMY ROSEANNE GRAHAM, slumped over the steering wheel of a running car. Her six year old daughter was in the back seat. When I spoke to GRAHAM, she appeared to awaken and began to curse and ask to be allowed to go back to sleep. She made spontaneous statements that she had taken prescription medication, to include muscle relaxants, the night before. At all times, she appeared incoherent and in poor control of her physical faculties. She refused to perform field sobriety tests. In my opinion as a law enforcement officer, she was impaired.
